Ice Breaker – New Business

Topics and projects for 2011-2012

- Service Learning “Community Plan” for grades 9 to 12 (Farmington Schools)
 - Do you volunteer for your community?
 - Would you like to be a youth voice on a non-profit board and make a difference or offer sustainability to the project that is important to you?
 - Need ideas for your “Senior Project?”
 - Do you have ideas that you can share for anti-bullying; distracted driving or prevention of underage drinking?
 - Have ideas that you can share with other teens for community improvements?
 - Share ideas on how we can implement a Service Learning project for your community and at the same time receive credit for your volunteer time, a requirement for graduation at some schools
 - 10 hours of service learning per high school year (40 hours total)
 - Students may select the location(s) they serve
 - 1 hour per year must be at an MTAC meeting
 - MTAC will be meeting with Farmington Superintendent Janel Ryan on September 8
 - What ideas would you like presented at this meeting?
- Transportation – “Are you on board?”
 - Creating a Red Apple bus pass system for youth in Farmington
 - Unlimited rides with pass (what ages?)
 - Will provide safe, economical, environmentally friendly transportation
 - If successful, may lead to a new route for youth during the summer
 - Update from August 24 meeting with Mayor Roberts
 - Hearings TBA, if you have ideas, have ridden the bus, or support the youth bus pass, please voice your opinion at this meeting!
- Anti-bullying campaign for the community
- Distracted Driving and/or w8t2txt campaign
